NOCKHERBERG

...HAPPINESS AND UNHAPPINESS, LIGHTNESS AND HEAVINESS - COEXIST, INTERTWINE AND ARE INTERDEPENDENT.

With her photo series LONESOME ASTRONAUT, Nicole Giesa has been exploring the paradoxes of modern life in everyday life since the end of 2021: Loneliness and alienation in an increasingly networked world. The anonymous astronaut as a metaphor for the human experience at a time when real interpersonal relationships often take a back seat to screens and virtual interactions.

Nicole Giesa lived in Berlin for 20 years before moving to Munich at the end of 2019. Since then, she has been visualising her impressions of everyday life and society in a unique way with her iconic photo series. Her first solo exhibition LOST BUT FOUND IN MUC can be seen in a Munich gallery in late summer 2020. In April 2022, the two photo series WANDERLAMPE WANDA and PANDEMICLIFE will be presented in a special exhibition at the Glyptothek. In October 2022, her LONESOME ASTRONAUT will be one of the visitor favourites at a photo festival in Venice before being shown in a gallery in Munich's Kunstareal. Selected works will then be shown as part of Artbox group exhibitions in Palma de Mallorca, at Art Basel Miami (USA) and at the Swiss Art Expo in Zurich. In March/April 2024, the Künstlerhaus at Lenbachplatz will present over 60 of her works from the WANDERLAMPE WANDA and LONESOME ASTRONAUT series under the title TO THE MOON AND BACK. This will be followed in September 2024 by an exhibition at the Barlach Halle K in Hamburg, curated by Elvie Barlach.

Since July 2024 and until March 2025, Giesa's Astronaut has been concluding the large group exhibition 'Metaphor to Metamorphosis' at the König Galerie in the Bergson Kunstkraftwerk in Aubing.

Nicole Giesa's photographic works are represented in renowned private collections. Her work can also be found at the Hotel Du Cap-Eden-Roc in the south of France and at the Paulaner am Nockherberg.
